SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 15.

THAT SLEEP WALKING SINGER .- May Casey, the concert singer who was arrested a day or two ago in New York for walking in her sleep, told the police that she had never been arrested before, although she admitted baying walked in her sleep through the streets of Syracuse and other places. She must have failed to remember some of her escapades in that city. One night in January, a year ago, Miss Casey had been singing in Boon's concert saloon, Syracuse, and during the evening had a few words with another singer. She went to bed somewhat excited. Toward morning she roused up and walked out into the streets, which were covered deeply with snow. At the corner of Salina and Washington streets she became exhausted and fell into a snow bank. An officer discovered her and had her taken to the police station. A sergeant thawed her out and later allowed her to go home. She had not been drinking, but was suffering simply from somnambulism.

A DESPERATE CRUSADE -Mrs. William Rodgers, of Bonne Terre, Minn., created a stir Thursday by raiding one of the "blind tiger" salcons which had been running there in violation of law. She has two sons. Both are minors. Tuesday night they were entired to the place and made drunk. The mother learned the face and inaugurated a crusade. Donning her hat she hastened down to the saloon, and after a brief but interesting interview with the proprietor she demolished every window in the place and partially wrocked the interior before she could be persuaded to desist.

Sam Jones has been waking up the sioners of Tyler, Tex, where he has compared dancing girls to tadpoles, and has greatly offended the fashionable girls by saying that they "look no more like God Almighty's women than a Chiuaman looks like a salt mine."

MEDICINAL.

SHIR CANCER.

Several visiting and I called to see a colored woman visiting and imalignment form of cancer on her for the concerned worse under the pre-scribe insatment, and the tool and one side of the root were at length exten entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commineed the use of Swith Specific, and it comed her sound well. That is three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. I regard outfit's disease a most excellent medicing for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out it poison.
